To all the underclassmen - make these years worthwhile because if you don't when graduation is upon you, you will wish you had. Remember that you don't get a second chance to re-live what you wish you would have done. It's a long haul but in the end it pays off. Keep your head up, your spirit high, and your expectations strong and take the world by surprise. High school is the first of your many adventures in life and the most memorable. It is you who can make the best out of high school and make your memories spectacular.

You will encounter many struggles along your path but as time passes so do the problems. You will learn now so you can enjoy your future later. We leave you with this knowledge in hopes that you will follow us down the road to success. Life's situations are tough and it feels like everyone is against you, just look back at all the great times you have had at Calumet and your will power will once again overcome you. To all the underclassmen, good luck and goodbye.

To the Senior class of 2000 - Our time has come to say goodbye to the best years of our life, to what has been home to us the past four years, to Calumet High School. Our road was sometimes rocky, but we overcame the inevitable and surpassed each and every obstacle that challenged us. Yet the journey has only just begun. As we exit the doors of Calumet High for the very last time as a student, the memories will linger on. As we enter the doors of Calumet High for the very first time as alumni, the memories will still linger on. The good times and yes, even the bad times, will have a special spot in our minds and hearts forever. The halls will be filled with our spirits and our accomplishments will have an impact on future generations. We are the new millennium class and the world watches and awaits our actions, we have the world at our fingertips so grab ahold of it and make it last. The next generation deserves a chance to become what we have become and enjoy what we have enjoyed. To the class of 2000 - Good Luck and Good Bye!!

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming of the Millennium

This 1999 - 2000 Homecoming was the greatest the Warriors have had in eleven years. For the first time since 1988, Calumet High School's football team won their Homecoming game! The Warriors defeated Whiting 28-7. Coach Ivan Zimmer has done so much to build our football team into a winning and proud team.

The fans, who also attend Calumet High School, were major participants in this year's celebrating Homecoming. On Monday they dressed in their pajamas. On Tuesday they dressed for Hawaiian weather. Wednesday was a different story when the boys dressed as girls and girls dressed as guys. Thursday, the students dressed using their worst fashion sense ever because it was mix-match day. Friday everyone showed their Warrior spirit by wearing red and white.

The cheerleaders were into Warrior Pride as well. They hyped up the crowd making the fans cheer loudly. The Warriorettes had a big role in this year's game. They performed at half-time and entertained the fans while the football team and cheerleaders took a quick breather.

The band helped make the game's atmosphere a great success. This homecoming they had a lot spirit and showed so much pride. They sat in the stands and cheered for the Warriors. Faces were painted red and white and some members even dyed their hair. Mr. Gamula, the band director, was also caught up in the Warrior Spirit, dyeing his hair red with a white "C" in the back.

Our Homecoming Queen and King were Celia Stooksbury and Brandon Neely. The other candidates were Fran Davis and Robert Mendoza, Robyn Mendoza and Chris Bewley, Lawanda Mitchell and Aaron Echols.

Music of My Heart

Homecoming Dance of '99 was a great success. It was sponsored by Student Council who chose the DJ service, The Musical Moodmakers, for our musical pleasure. The theme of the dance was "Music of My Heart" by N'Sync and Gloria Estefan. This was the first year that the dance was Semi-formal. Everyone had a good time dancing, talking, and even moshing.

Red Ribbon Week was the week of October 25, 1999. The entire student body participated in the support of a Drug-Free week by wearing red ribbons. Many students even made posters, showing their opinion on drugs. A balloon launch is what ends the week instead of the candlelight walk. The P.U.S.H. team of 98-99 decided that they would do a balloon launch because of

Q: What part of Red Ribbon Week did you like best?

Frances Magallan- My favorite part was the balloon launch.

Q: What is the message you wanted to get across on your balloon?

Candi Rice- The message that we are anti-drug.

Q: What is the thing you enjoy doing most in P.U.S.H.?

Ryland Sherman- Teaching the kids how not to screw up their lives.

all the construction on the roads. Members sign the balloons launching them in hopes of hearing from people around the country about a stray balloon.

Fall Play

Channel Surfing

*C*alumet Theatre put on another hilarious play this fall. The crowd never stopped laughing the whole way through. Not only was the play funny but it was also very interesting and easy to follow. The play was a parody of several cable television shows. The premise of the play had some girls over to a friend's house after school "doing homework" - yet watching TV.

Calumet Theater Presents

“Makin’ It”

The Drama club once again gave a marvelous performance in March of 2000. They performed the play “Makin’ It.” The play was about high school kids just trying to make it through the day. The performance presented many problems that occur in an everyday high school. They had the average teenage girl, played by Kristy Heston, wanting so badly to be popular that she would be willing to do anything to achieve that goal.

There was also the sort of outcasted girl, GerriAnn Alaniz, who just wanted to make it through the day. And we can’t forget the “nerd”, played by Brandon Neely.

The performance also had a family, that included the concerned parents, Kathy Beehn and Crandal Shumpert, and the pesky daughter, Margaret Barnard. Of course there was the jock, Karl, played by Chris Bewley and the girl with the brains, Libby, played by Amanda Kelley.

Other common characters, the bullies, were played by Robert Mendoza and Aaron Echols, who picked on the not-so-popular kid, Chris Lennox. There was the stuck-up rich boy, Jonathan Brown, an only child who took pills because his mother, Alexandria Crumble, does it.

The rest of the cast consisted of the normal stuck-up girls portrayed by Elia Figueroa, Courtney Bailey, and Serena Mathias, who did everything they could to treat other kids badly. And we can’t forget the kids doing time in detention, Micheal Zimmer, Frank Gomez, and Larnelle Bocot. Finally a school can’t run without the faculty: Jan Vines, Joshua Woodward, and Ryland Sherman.

Above: Ryland Sherman looks pretty upset at some of the students. After all, as a former military man, he is set in his ways.

Below: Mike Zimmer as Buzard, tries to con the teachers, Jan Vines and Joshua Woodward, so that he can get out of detention.

Bottom Left: Elia Figueroa and Jonathan Brown, also known as Pat and Hunter, stare with a look of disgust as one of the unlikeable characters enters the scene. Photos by Ms. Green Above: Look at Ms. Dunbar, Alexandria Grumble, strut her stuff. She knows that she is not one to be bargained with compared to Mr. Vince Carmelli, Joshua Woodward, the school's principal.

Bottom Left: Brooke, Kristy Heston, is sort-of stunned that she is being talked to by Scott, Brandon

Neely. She played one of the popular and accepted kids while he was sort-of considered a nerd. Bottom Right: Chris Lennox faces the audience as he gets the dance moves down. The theater group preformed a dance number along with the play. This play was Chris's Debut.

Below: Chris Bewley listens as Amanda Kelley, his crush in the play, explains how she is so different from the other kids. Pictures by Ms. Green

Blood Drive

Once again the Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Begley, held the traditional Blood Drive in the wrestling room. The event occurred on March 28, 2000. Heartland Blood Association was the company who ran the event. At first, not many students wanted to sign up for the blood drive, but as teachers offered a little something extra for donating, students seemed to change their minds. Many students and teachers participated and managed to give 68 pints of blood. Even though the blood drive fell a little short of its goal of 100 pints, it still had a very successful turnout.

Above: Amy Kwasniewski, Celia Stooksbury, Andrea Hutchinson, and Steven Fancher sit at the table full of snacks at this year's blood drive sponsored by the Student Council. There were many items offered to help students and teachers rebuild their strength after donating a pint of blood.

“Thank God I Found You”

Turn-A-Bout ’99

Turn-a-bout ’99 was held on December 18, 1999 at Calumet High School. With the theme “Thank God I Found You” by Mariah Carey, the student council once again put together a beautiful dance. Pictures were taken by Memory Makers and once everyone arrived, pictures were the first thing that they took care of.

The guys were quite excited because, after all, this is the dance that allows the girls the chance to take the guy of their choice. Some girls chose their boyfriends while some girls went single. “I went with my friends and I had a great time. We talked, danced, and laughed all night,” a few females commented. Turn-a-bout was a great time.

What was the best part of your night?

Spending time with my gorgeous boyfriend. -Mike. -Elizavette Zarate.

What did you do after Turn-a-bout?

National Education Week

National Education Week is a time when teachers and students are recognized for their achievements. Each day something new is experienced for both sides. On Monday, the custodians were recognized for all their help. On Tuesday each outstanding student in every class was awarded with a ribbon from his or her teacher. Wednesday was student appreciation day. Thursday was student/teacher exchange day, showing the teachers a student's point of view is an opportunity that the students would never pass up. Finally, on Friday, the teachers were recognized with free donuts and coffee.

Band is a great addition to the many clubs and groups that are a part of Calumet High School's curriculum. They have many concerts of their own and at some of them, they had guests. The band had a concert in December of 1999, where they performed with the chorus. The band has also had many other concerts and many good shows. They perform at football and basketball games. For each of the home games, the band begins with the "Fight Song," which is what the team jogs onto the field/court to. When the band plays this, the Cheerleaders and Warriorettes perform a dance. The band practices and puts a lot of effort into their performances and it is always worth it in the end.

The Harmonious 99-00 CHS Chorus

Calumet High School's Chorus, directed by Ms. Potoma, had a few concerts this 99-00 year. Their first concert was a Halloween concert in October with the band in the CHS auditorium. They took a trip with the Humanities class to the Black Oak Library for Christmas Caroling for elders. The library presented each student with a small goody bag and wished them a good year. In February one of the members of chorus, Michelle Short, received first place State Vocal Rating for a solo performance. The Chorus preformed in the ISSMA Contest in April. They came out quite pleased with a second place. In the spring, the chorus performed yet another concert to end their year together.

This year as the Boys' Basketball team entered Sectionals with a 9-15 season, a pep rally was held to honor all winter sports. Alexandria Crumble gave a great speech about the Girls' Basketball team. The girls' went 3-18 this season. The Wrestling team was also acknowledged. As always, Mr. Watkins gave a long-winded generalization about the boys' season. The team was 15-13 as well as Sectional Champs and Regional runners-up. The Warriorettes showed their school spirit by giving us a unique dance routine. They wore basketball uniforms and dedicated their dance to the team. Then the cheerleaders did a great job of hyping up the crowd. They performed a dance and a few cheers, mounts, and chants.

"These Are Prom

Prom 2000 was a great success. It was held at The Dynasty on May 12th at 6:00. The night began with waiting in line for pictures and a little mingling among friends. After that, dinner was served and then there was a little dancing. Everyone was on the dance floor showing their moves when the DJ asked them to clear the floor. At that time Ms. Weakland took the floor to announce the prom court.

The court consisted of Tony Brown/ Keneisha Buggs, Cory Fox/Kelley McNash, Tony Hemphill/ Amanda Patterson, and Ryan Johnson/Malissa Seanz. It was a close call, but the 2000 Prom king and queen winners were Tony Brown and Keneisha Buggs.

Dancing, Awards

This year's Senior Banquet was really special. The banquet was held on May 26th at 6:00. The dinner was served by the cafeteria staff at CHS, and the music was by Jason Dettman at "Mr. Mobile Music." The evening started with a wonderful dinner and some music. Then, as dinner finished, the awards presentations began. After cleaning up, everyone lined up for a few group pictures. Then, as pictures finished, everybody did a little dancing. The night was full of fun and everyone had a wonderful time.

CHICAGO...Look Out!

Senior Trip 2000

Once again the Senior class of Calumet took their annual senior trip to the wonderful city of Chicago. The day started off with the senior class eating breakfast in the cafeteria and then off to Chicago they went. The senior class and their chaperones made their first stop at Navy Pier where they got the best look at Lake Michigan. With the sight-seeing complete, the class saw an IMAX movie about "His Airness" Micheal Jordan, called Micheal Jordan to the Max. After the movie, all the groups went their separate ways to discover the city of Chicago. When the night came close to an end, all of the groups met at the Briar Street Theater see to the performance of the Blue Man Group.

FREE AT LAST...

Graduation, as always, is a time that we'll never forget. This year the Class of 2000 graduated with 142 students. These graduates were so excited, yet some weren't ready to leave. Tears and smiles appeared all over the faces of the students as they crossed the stage and received their diplomas. Mr. Broome met everyone and as he shook their hand, he wished them a great future.

Where It All Happens...

This year the Chieftain yearbook staff worked very hard to meet deadlines, attend school, and take a lot of pictures - just to put the yearbook together. The Chieftain yearbook staff consists of the Editor-in-Chief Bridget Davis, Co-Editor Shanda Scott, with Amber Owens, Celia Stooksbury, Robyn Mendoza, Caitrin Taylor, Mike Zimmer, Alicia Neeley, Danelle Niblett, April Bovenkerk, Jeremy Meulemans, Mike Reiser, and Courtney Bailey.

This staff had a lot to put together, and they surely didn't think that this class would be as hard as it was. When deciding you want to take this class, just remember that it's not all fun and games, it takes a lot of hard work and dedication. In this class we learn how to crop pictures, what pictures are the right pictures and where on the page to put the pictures. We have to know what to write on the page, how to write what we want to say on paper and make it all fit on the page. Between all of the deadlines and the chaos, somehow there is time to relax and enjoy the memories that are made in a classroom.

Top: Sharon Hurley, Alicia Neeley, and Danelle Niblett try to fix the mistakes on the ads and index pages. They are sick of working on the same page, they are ready to ship it out so it can be printed. Below: Celia Stooksbury asks the editor-in-chief, Bridget Davis for help cropping a picture. All pictures have to be cropped so they fit in the designated space. As the editor-in-chief, Bridget's jobs included checking the cropping, the layouts, and the text. photo by Shanda Scott

Left: Chieftain staff members, Jeremy Meulemans, Danelle Niblett, April Bovenkerk, Celia Stooksbury, Shanda Scott, and Alicia Neely work hard to meet an upcoming deadline. The students are each responsible for different sections of the yearbook and each page within each section is given a specific deadline to be finished. These students were promised a pizza party whenever deadlines were met; however, there were no pizza parties during this school year. photo by Amber Owens

Working With The Community

Student Council

1999-2000

The student council this year was led by a great group of people. Mr. Begley has done a great job of leading these kids in a new year. The president of student council, Chris Bewley, has been doing a wonderful job. He has gotten student council recognized as a group for so many different activities. The other officers were vice-president Ryland Sherman, Secretary Celia Stooksbury, and Treasurer Kari Alexander. These people have been great leaders over the year. The rest of the members include students who were voted in by their classmates and include freshmen through seniors. Student Council as a whole has been involved in many activities.

They held food drives during Thanksgiving and Christmas. They also joined the Honor Society in putting on the Safe Trick or Treat, which was a great success. They have also donated their time and blood to a blood drive that was held during the middle of the year, anyone over 18 years old could have donated blood without parental permission. They also rang the bells for the Salvation Army during the winter. It was cold, but they raised a lot of money.

The advertisement features a large graphic of a hand holding a car key. Below the key, the slogan "DRIVE SOBER OR DON'T DRIVE AT ALL!" is written in bold, capital letters. The background of the ad shows a classroom setting where two students, Tabitha Long and Candi Rice, are working at a desk.

Prevention Using Student Help, is an organization in our school formed to promote a drug-free lifestyle. P.U.S.H. members have to go through a training program before they can be involved in the P.U.S.H. program. These high school students are doing their best to get youngsters in Calumet Township to say no to drugs. They are doing their best to make sure that everyone knows what is right and what is wrong.

The members of P.U.S.H include: Marquita Brumfield, Sophia Casko, Trish Crooms, Michelle Clark, LaKeisha Hawkins, Andrea Hutchinson, Amanda Kelly, Sarah Labs, Tabitha Long, Frances Magal-

Ian, Angela O'Brian, Jason Owensby, Mickey Parker, Joe Reid, Candi Rice, Francisco Rico, Randi Ross, Ryland Sherman, Jenna Smith, Zachary Spencer, Keith Turpin, Brandy Warnock, and Amanda Watkins.

These twenty-three students participate in this club year round. They also are involved with helping the school during Red Ribbon week as they passed out red ribbons and hung up posters, they also launched 100 balloons with drug-free messages attached to them. The people that join this club are very dedicated people.

Striving for

Calumet had a terrific year! The English team captain was Phillip Farner whose squad came in first at the Regional Academic Super Bowl, other members were Ryann Deloney, Jose Aguila, Jade Cloud, and Joe Reid. Continuing the excellent performance, the Math team also captured a first place victory. Captain Ryland Sherman, with other team members Keith Turnip, and Mickey Parker, brought home the trophy. These same young men brought in a second for the Science team.

The Fine Arts team of Michelle Short, Liz Ward, and Genevieve Wheetly and captained by Jade Cloud, also brought home a second place.

A Look into the

The Business Professionals of America is a National Organization for students who want to be in a Business atmosphere while they're still in high school. Calumet was the fourth school in the state of Indiana to join this organization.

B.P.A. has been at Calumet since 1988, that's when it officially became The Business Professionals of America, before then it was known as Occupational Education Association. Ms. Simic has been the sponsor since 1988. This B.P.A. had a good showing at the regional where they had seven place winners, including the District One president, Chris Bewley, who placed in three different events. Other placers include Crandal Shumpert, Mike Zimmer, Marcus Hare, Lakeisha Hawkins, Shaula Fritch and Billie Jo Cobb.

This year's honor society started off on the right foot. They had a lookout for new members all year long. They volunteered their time to many activities. They helped out with Market Days after school at Longfellow Elementary School where they helped pack food and carried it out to cars. The members also sold pizza after school. Many of the athletes appreciated that, because they would have something to eat before they had to go to practice and could always depend on it. They also recognized the janitors, by giving them gloves filled with goodies and saying "We Glove You." That was mighty thoughtful of them. The National Honor Society also went to visit nursing homes and kept the people there happy and full of smiles. They watched them play games and played games with them. They also brought a clown with them so that the people there would enjoy the tricks and fun.

This year the honor society had many members do many different activities. They were led by no other than Mrs. Walters. She does an excellent job putting and keeping the National Honor Society together. Mrs. Walters helps to plan and organize the different activities NHS does.

Acting into the

The 1999-2000 Drama Club had another great year of acting. They started off the year with the play Channel Surfing, followed by the play Makin' It which was another great success. But what sticks out in everybody's mind are the assemblies: one for Cinco De Mayo and one for Black History Month. These two were preformed in front of a very appreciative student body. They were very big successes. All in all, the 1999-2000 Drama Club had another outstanding year in what has become a Dynasty over the years and we're sure that it will stay great for many years to come.

The Warrior Press newspaper is hot this year. The newspaper staff has been working pretty hard throughout the year to get as many papers out as they can. Although they only had the chance to put out a couple of papers this year, they were busy working on other important details they needed to publish the paper. Mr. Boufis has led a great group of people to put this year's newspaper out.

This year's staff has two editors; Robyn Mendoza and Brandon Neely and Business Manager Liz Ward. The rest of the staff, which is mainly reporters, includes Mark Anderson, Chris Bewley, Erica Cooper, Jim Garrison, Nick Gonzalez, Marcus Hare, Ryan Johnson, Shannon Johnson, Amy Kwasniewski, Robert Mendoza, Sarah Neely, Keith Turpin and Liz Ward. The staff consists mainly of seniors with a few underclassmen.

The newspaper staff has a lot to do during the year, they have important deadlines to meet. With all of the sports and information that goes on in the school, the newspaper staff has to be on top of it all. They all have to write articles on the important things that go on during the year. They have also been to the new CHS television studio to learn how to program and understand the "behind the scenes" activities. All in all, it has been a good year.

Working For A Better Tomorrow

I.C.E is a Work Program where students who want to make more money can go to school for half a day and to work the other half. The club sponsor is Mr. Portman, he has been the sponsor for 32 years. The students get one credit per semester for in-class training which involves work safety, job interviews and how to get along with other employees. They also get two credits for on-the-job performance.

This season finished a very nice three year run in boy's Tennis at CHS. Seniors Aaron Pineda and William Owensby were co-captains and excellent leaders. Senior Ryland Sherman was Academic All-state with a 1380 SAT score, 29 ACT score, and Valedictorian (4.4) ranking in the class of 2000. The team had a great record of eleven wins and eleven losses.

That marks three straight non-losing seasons, 1997 (11-9), 1998 (14-9), 1999 (11-11) for the first time since 1984, 1985, 1986 (9-6, 16-4, 12-2). There were 36 wins in three years. Coach Tauber stated, "I have had a lot of talented tennis teams in my fourteen years of coaching, but I've never had a nicer bunch of boys with excellent attitudes."

Can you dig it?

This year's J.V. Volleyball team came out 6-20-0. It was a good season for these girls although their scores didn't show it. The season wasn't a total loss because they all became the best of friends. If you've ever been to any of these youngsters' games, you saw that they were something special and definitely on their way to the top. They came out beating Westerville on 10-7-99 after losing to them earlier in the season on 9-18-99. They also took Munster to three games in order to win. They have doubled their wins since last year and tripled their heart.

THE TEAM OF THE MILLENNIUM....

The Calumet Warrior Football team started the season off with a bang and continued to soar from there! With the guidance of their coach, Mr. Zimmer, who was announced Coach of the Week by the Indianapolis Colts, the Warriors played four straight games before being defeated by the Highland Trojans, which was the biggest disappointment of the season. The Warriors were determined not to let that one game get them down; on Senior Night the following Friday, the Calumet Warriors played - and beat - the Morton Governors.

Senior captains Anthony Ruiz, Robert Mendoza, Matt Trammell, Mike Zimmer and Chris Bewley led the team through their victories all year. These seniors made sure the team practiced and prepared to their fullest ability before entering the game against Morton. As a result, it showed on the field, especially from senior running back Aaron Echols as he absolutely made a mockery of Morton's defense while scoring six touchdowns and running for 384 yards.

The Warriors went into the Homecoming game more confident than ever. The night ended with a Warriors' defeat - 28 to 7. The Warriors had a great night as they won their first Homecoming game since 1988.

With a record of 6 and 1, the Warriors went to Clark's

"This season was truly remarkable, all the hard work and dedication paid humongous dividends. It was definitely the start of a new tradition, that will hopefully be carried into the next millennium. Homecoming with excitement in their eyes and victory in their hearts. The Warriors were overjoyed when they won the game 13 to 7 and became LAC Blue Champions. On Friday, October 15, the Warriors disappointed Gavit High School at their Homecoming by scoring three touch-downs in the first quarter! Score: Warriors 48, Gladiators 15. That was the last game of the regular season. The following Friday the Warriors went to Bishop Noll to play the class 3A Sectional game. Unfortunately, the Warriors came home with tears in their eyes as they lost the sectional game. With a final record of 8-2, the Warriors finished with the best record in the history of football at CHS. The Warriors, especially the seniors, had a great year.

The Future In The Making

J.V. football sometimes does not get the recognition it deserves. They are the future of the Calumet Warrior football program. Through this system these young men can get the experience they need to perform in game situations. They are a vital part in the success of the varsity football team. By practicing with the varsity they get a feel for what the big time will be like. They also give the varsity a good look for the week's opponent. These guys work just as hard as everyone else on the team. Whether the J.V. team is successful or not is not that important, the experience of playing in a real game is the important part. A winning record would not hurt, but that is not the main goal. These young men not only get football experience but also learn important values that will help in every day life.

Crossing the Line

Do you know what the cross-country team really is? This team doesn't get noticed as much as they truly should. They work hard to do their best and to get noticed.

This is Stigall's eighth year coaching the cross-country team at Calumet High School. He has worked hard trying to put together a great team. One of the biggest disappointments of this season for the Warriors was losing Ivan Ignacio to appendicitis.

Also losing the only girl on the cross-country team, Guadalupe Merlos, was upsetting for Coach Stigall. "Lupe is a hard worker and could have done better if she had not been held back by sickness. I believe she could have made All-Conference and gotten out of sectionals," commented coach Stigall.

On the other hand, coming out this year would be a freshman named Dennis Frazee who would remarkably help his team finish 7th in the LAC. Dennis was CHS's only regional qualifier.

The 1999-2000 J.V. Lady Warriors finished their season with an excellent record of 9-13. They had one of the greatest seasons in the history of our school. They recorded 9 victories and almost every loss was by ten points or less. It wasn't for lack of trying, because these girls were on the floor working their tails off every game.

It wasn't long ago when students - fans - didn't show up for games, but now they are lining up waiting for the doors to open to purchase a ticket. The majority of the Junior Varsity consisted of Freshmen players, who, over the last few summers, have had the opportunity to play in AAU basketball and many different camps during the off-seasons to help build up the competition.

Miss Downing commented, "Our J.V. team, being able to compete against everyone, is a strong indication that we are getting closer to playing on the same level as our opponents." Coach Hess adds, "This has been one of the best teams I've ever coached because of the competitiveness and emotion the girls have." Congratulations girls for the best season yet.

Taking control, Kristina Monik goes up for the lay-up while Rachel Flores positions herself to block out the opponents in case she needs to rebound.

The Lady

The Lady Warriors did not quite have a stellar season but a lot good came from this season. You couldn't ask for better senior leaders than Lawanda Mitchell, Clarissa Jordan, and Erica Padgett. Although we will be saying good bye to these Seniors there is plenty of young talent waiting to fill those shoes. That is what the program needs. Young girls willing to work hard and improve every year so they can lead the Lady Warriors to a winning season. Some of the younger girls showed they could play this year, now they just have to work hard to improve. They will have the experience a good program needs. Coach Downing does a good job getting these girls in the gym in the off season to work on their game. She instills the importance of hard work and dedication in her players. It is very important for the young players to know how important it is to work hard and be dedicated. This program is rising.

Making Waves

The 1999 - 2000 Seahawk men had a winning season this year with a record of 9-4 and 7-3. The Lady Seahawks had a record of 5-7 overall and 3-5 in the Lake Athletic Conference. With hair dyed and, in some cases, shaved off, an appointed few qualified for the finals and consolations of sectionals. Everyone entered into their events pumped up and ready to show the other schools just what Calumet is really made of. The relay team swam incredibly well, breaking their prelim times by an average of 2.8 seconds. That is a lot of swimming. At sectional prelims the Seahawks entered into the Munster Natorium with a proud and confident attitude, they knew that they all came a long way since the beginning of the season. All the seniors were ready to make their final sectionals in their high school career the most memorable of them all. And that they did. Congratulations Seahawks on your outstanding season.

Cheerleaders, what more can you say? They're at every football and basketball game and are the most dedicated fans. They perform at every pep rally held and support our school to the fullest of their ability. This year the cheerleaders have had their ups and downs, but all-in-all, it was an excellent year for them. The cheerleaders gave an awesome performance for Homecoming. The cheerleaders worked hard learning the dance routines and putting up the mounts. They had long practices where they worked themselves extra hard. It all paid off in the end; as the roar of the crowd got louder and louder, the girls realized all of the practice worked in the outcome. They were exceptionally happy giving the crowd something to cheer for. As the end of the 1999-2000 school year came to an end the cheerleaders were both excited and upset; some of the girls will be moving on to another year full of cheers, fun and high school, while the rest will be moving to bigger things and out of high school. As another year passes them by, they will carry with them the memories of school, the short skirt and all of the last minute excitement at the games.

Gettin' the Groove

Warriorettes! What everyone sticks around in the gym at half time for: to see the Warriorettes move their feet and shake those hips. The girls work hard on getting their performance together before each game. The games always kept the girls busy. Warriorettes must make up their own dances and teach them to each other on their own. It's not always as easy as it looks. They must make each move precise and on beat. The routine is usually recommended to be between two and a half minutes to three minutes. This year the Warriorettes performed for Brittney Spears and also N-Sync, which was performed at this year's pep session. The ladies were lead by co-captains Danielle Suroviak and Amy Coulter, who have been on varsity since their freshman year.

Big Ballers

A new year, a new team. Things have been slow the last few years for the Calumet Warriors, fortunately this was a new year. The Calumet boy's basketball team ended with a great season at 9-15 and brought home the 2000 sectional trophy. The new thing was to keep our spirits high. Along with this year came a new fan club called "The Calumet Crazies," started by a few fellas, the Crazies would come to every game bringing more and more fans along with them. The guys on the team loved the new enthusiastic crowd. The Warriors' stats certainly did show it; for instance, senior Aaron Echols had 25 points in the 86-76 victory against Lowell, or Billy Watson's 22 points and 10 rebounds against Andrean. The Warriors also gained much needed experience being a team of youngsters. Winning sectionals was a great accomplishment for the Warriors. The Warriors came ready to win this for themselves and the fans. The final game of the sectional ended Calumet 57 and Gavit 52. The 2000 Calumet Warriors were sectional Champs! They now would have to face the Andrean 59'ers, the number one team in class 3A. Showing no fear the Warriors took a 10-0

J.V. is not just for the nonplayers anymore. J.V. is like the minor league farm system of major league baseball. These younger players have a chance to fine-tune their skills before they take the big step to varsity. This J.V. team is the building block of the Warrior basketball program. Coach "Stein" knows the importance of bringing these guys to their potential before they are put in the stressful situations of varsity games. Coach Zimmer has done a good job turning his players into fundamentally sound athletes. Some players have proven they are almost ready for varsity by getting in a few varsity quarters. With some experience under their belts these underclassmen will be leading the Calumet basketball program into the future with their goals set high.

PINS “R” US

Although they had a rocky preseason the Calumet Warrior wrestlers pulled it together. This year the Calumet grapplers defended their eighteenth consecutive sectional championship. They accomplished this with a complete team effort. With a few familiar faces such as Chris Byers (40-6), Matt Trammell (26-5), and Bryan Duncan (28-11) the Warrior wrestlers achieved another winning season. Experience played a key role this year even though there were some inexperienced grapplers thrown into the line up. Everyone held their own contributing key wins leading to team victories. Coach Wadkins does a great job whipping his wrestlers into shape. He had his work cut out for him preparing the younger grapplers for battle. He can take a lot of pride in his 2000 Calumet Warrior wrestling team. This season was one for the record books. We are all proud of this year's team and can't wait for next season.

Youth was a big part of this team. There were no Seniors on the 2000 girls tennis team. Coach Tauber is very optimistic with his whole team returning. With team leader Nikki Floyd (5-8) returning, next season is looking good. Although they did not have the best record Coach Tauber is still proud of this hard working bunch of girls. Dedication and hard work are key elements to a winning team and this team has both. They only have one way to go and that is up. Next year they will have more experience and maybe a few more wins under their belts. We will be expecting this team to be very competitive next season so be sure to come out and lend your support. These girls have worked hard and deserve your support.

With the senior leadership of John Eddlemon the Warrior golfers were able to turn in a very productive 6-8 season. With veteran help like James Valentine stepping in when needed, the Warriors were able to compete well all year. Coach Prohl has a lot to look forward to next season with five returning lettermen. He should be able to build a strong team around these golfers and be very competitive. These Warriors were also competitive in their first time hosting the Calumet Invitational. This grand event took place at the Monastery Golf Course in Cedar Lake. The Warriors were able to capture the very first Calumet Invitational title.

A Record Season

Calumet track is on the rise. With a great improvement from last season this year's team turned in a 7-1 record. That tied a school record for wins. With a good balance between the distance team and sprint team, Calumet was able to compete all season. Don't forget about the field events either, because they helped out a lot. This season was one to remember. Broken records were a common event this season. Between Lupe Merlos and the boys 3200 meter relay several records were broken. Coach Zimmer has brought us another record breaking season to Calumet athletics this year. He couldn't have done it without the help of newcomer Coach Cole. He showed the distance team what hard work was and turned them into a well oiled machine. Hopefully Coach Zimmer and Coach Cole have set a precedent for Calumet track. Senior Michael Zimmer thinks so. "The attitude of the team this year was great and I think that carried over from the other winning seasons this year," Zimmer said. Mike went on to say, "I encourage everyone who does not play a spring sport to come out for track because it is a great experience. It doesn't matter if you are fast or not, just look at me." This season was one to remember and maybe next year can be even better.

Batter Up

This year was a rocky season for the 1999-2000 girls softball team. With two of their Varsity players injured most of the year and nearly half the team being freshmen, they played to their fullest. No matter how many hits, tag outs, or throw outs they got, the ten-run rule never favored these girls. The team looks promising next year with only four graduating seniors. These seniors are: Amber Owens who played center field, Shanda Scott who played third base and was selected Lake 10 Honorable Mention, Stacey Cercone who played right field, and Kathleen McIntire who was a first year catcher. Though these seniors will be missed they have left behind a new tradition: Win or lose, always have fun!

This year's baseball team had a rough season. The Warriors couldn't always come up with a victory. The ten run rule didn't always come up in favor of the Warriors. Their season was filled with highs and lows, but the spirits of these run slaughter rule the Red Devils used previously in the year to beat them, the Warriors would come wanting the victory. The Warriors would hold a 1 to 1 tie until the bottom of the 7th. The bases would soon fill for the Red Devils and Jimenez would feel the pressure...Batter up. Jimenez pitches three balls in a row. The crowd was quiet as 2 strikes were thrown across the plate. Then: STIKE THREE! Jimenez did it for the Warriors, he struck the batter out.

It was now the Warriors time to step to the plate. Aaron Pineda would get on base due to a dropped third strike; next up, Brandon Neely stepped to the plate and advanced Aaron to second with a sacrifice bunt. Aaron would soon take third on a passed ball. Jimenez stepped to plate and hit a pop-up into right field allowing Aaron to tag up and score the winning run for Calumet!

What will you miss about playing baseball?

"I'll miss playing the sport with all my friends and teammates. I've grown so close to all those guys. I love every one of them. It's going to be tough giving up the togetherness we shared on the field."

Brandon Neely

"I'm going to miss the excitement and competition of the game. But most of all I'm going to miss playing with all of my friends. The past four years have been great and I'll never forget them. I wish everyone on the team the best of luck."

William Owesby

"First I'll miss all of my friends such as Chris, Will, Brandon, Mark, Dave, Jeremy, Ryan, you know all the seniors and fellow players. I will really miss just being on the field and doing what is fun. I will miss all fans worldwide. It was great. I'll miss all you guys."

Resting on the palm is a glowing, translucent globe of the Earth. The globe is brightly lit from within, casting a soft glow on the hand and the surrounding area. In the background, there are faint, jagged lines resembling lightning bolts or cracks in stone, adding a dramatic and mysterious atmosphere.

ACADEMICS

THE HISTORY OF THE PAST

Clumet's history department offers Geography, World History, US History, Government and Economics. Freshmen must take Geography. Sophomores must pass World History. Juniors are required to take US History. Seniors take Government and Economics.

Each of these courses teaches the students different aspects of history. Geography is mainly about the land, weather, climates, and land elevation. In World History, the students learn when different cultures began, how they worked for their freedom, and what they consist of. In US History, students learn about the many cultures in the United States. In Government and Economics the students learn about our country, how it is governed, and the management of money.

Real World Technology

As we go out on our own, we will deal with problems that can't be solved by just reading a school book. We can prepare ourselves to overcome these problems by taking classes such as manufacturing systems, communication systems, construction systems, and technology and you. These classes are located in the v-hall of Calumet. In life we might not have too much extra money, so maybe we can relate to one of these classes to fix a problem ourselves.

The manufacturing, communications, and construction systems classes are all eighteen weeks long, unlike technology and you, which is a whole semester. The manufacturing class allows students to discover how products are planned, manufactured and sold. Some of the activities include: operating machinery, welding, metal lathes, and vertical mills. In the communication systems class students learn to explore communication in society. The activities involve printing/graphic arts, technical drawing, and electronic communication media. The construction class explores the world of construction. In this class you learn how houses, commercial/industrial buildings, roads, bridges and other things are built. By April Borenkerk

EXPLORING THE UNIVERSE

Students

at CHS are required to pass two years of science class to graduate. There are six science classes offered: Earth Science, Physical Science, Biology I, Biology II, Chemistry, and Physics. In Biology I students dissect a fetal pig while the Biology II students dissect a mink. The dissections give the students a good look at the muscles and organs of these animals which they then compare to the human body. All science classes do different types of labs, including things like looking at microorganisms, making esters, and separating all the colors in a marker. The labs give the students a good look at things they can do with science.

In chemistry and physics students incorporate a lot of math skills.

READING, WRITING,

f all

the subjects offered at Calumet, English is the most important. The English classes are split into basic, standard, and honors. Students are required to pass four years of English to graduate. Calumet also offers four English electives for the students who like to write: newspaper, composition, journalism, and yearbook.

In English class, students read short stories, novels, poems, and plays. They do many compositions and projects, in which some are presented to the class in the form of acting, presentations or on posterboards.

This year, Mrs. Walters participated in a student teacher program allowing Ms. Kibler, a college student, to teach her English classes. Ms. Kibler took on all the obligations of being the teacher with some assistance from Mrs. Walters. By teaching Mrs. Walters classes, Ms. Kibler will graduate from college and become a licensed teacher. By

THE OTHER LANGUAGES

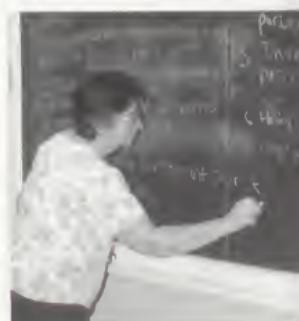

Students interested in Foreign Languages are offered either French or Spanish. These classes are offered all four years of high school, each year advances a step.

The first year of a Foreign Language the basics are taught, such as the alphabet, numbers, and how to conjugate verbs. The second year mainly focuses on verb tenses and conjugations. The third year the students read a lot. French classes read about the French history like the French and English war, Louis IV, and Queen Marie Antoinette. Spanish classes read El Cid and about many famous Spanish artists. The fourth year students review and prepare to take the test needed to enroll in a Foreign Language class in college.

Learning For Success

Art is part of the fine arts department. The art classes at Calumet include basic art, advanced art, and drawing and painting. These three classes allow students to build onto the skills they already have. If a student doesn't know much about art, these classes will bring out many art skills. For a student to be accepted to an art school, they must complete these classes in high school.

Chorus and band are the other sections of the fine arts department. Chorus is taught by Mrs. Potoma fifth hour. She helps students, if they don't already know, find out if they are an alto, soprano, or bass singer. Mr. Gamula, the band director, teaches band sixth hour. He prepares his class to play their instruments loud and on time. The students in both of these classes work extra hard to perform in holiday concerts, contests against other schools for medals, and other important ceremonies. By April Bovenkerk

Working For Fitness

Everyday people should practice good health habits. The health classes at Calumet encourage students to eat right and exercise on a regular basis. When people eat the right foods and keep fit, they will feel better about their body. Health is a very important class to take as a teenager. If we don't practice healthy habits as a student, we might not ever start. We might not be able to notice how bad health can affect us as a teen, but we will feel the difference as we grow up. Weight training and Gym are excellent classes to take for exercise. In Weight training class students work out on many machines, jump rope, lift basic weights, or toss around the medicine ball. During Gym class students swim, run the track, play basketball, volleyball, softball, or tennis. Health is around for our entire life, so what we do with our bodies when we're young can affect us as we grow old. By: April Bovenkerk

THE WORLD OF

The world today would not survive without business. Accounting, Consumer Education, Intro to Business, and Life Management are offered at Calumet to help students learn the processes of business. These classes give students a better understanding of how to approach jobs when the opportunity arrives. A few other examples of why these classes are helpful include managing money, filing taxes, dining out properly, and finding good paying jobs. Business is what makes life interesting because it keeps the flow of money circulating. The world would be complete chaos without business since everybody would be fighting over his/her role in the community. The key to our futures success revolves around business. By April Bovenkerk

SUPPORT

At Calumet there is a Support Service program that consists of teachers and paraprofessionals. These people go into different classrooms and provide help to special education students and to any other students who need or want the help. This support staff helps by reading tests, explaining discussions, and providing assistance a student may require. By Danelle Niblett

LEADING &

In 1997 Mr. Broome became principal of Calumet. He, Mr. Sanchez, our assistant principal, and our School Board have made many changes in our school. The School Board put Calumet under construction to improve the school. New air rents and central air conditioning have been added to our school. They also improved the industrial ball and the v-ball.

The rules of Calumet have become serious; for example, this year a rule has been instituted that does not permit students to carry backpacks unless those backpacks are mesh or clear. Mr. Broome and Mr. Sanchez came up with a solution to cut back tardies: have hall freezes. Whenever they decide, they announce a hall freeze and the teachers lock their classroom doors. Students in the hall without a pass have to go to the cafeteria where they receive an after school detention. With all of the changes and improvements that Mr. Broome and Mr. Sanchez have made, Calumet has become a better school.

The Guidance staff has many duties to perform each day. The staff invests a lot of time into Calumet. They keep track of students' schedules, class rank, and GPA. When the school year begins, the guidance department is the place where students' classes are prepared. We wouldn't know how many credits each student had or needed if guidance wasn't around to assist us.

Our counselors', Mr. Pribyl and Mrs. Gulley are there to assist student problems. Some of their problems may include: class changes, college confusion, SAT or ACT information, and credit problems. If a student has a problem, the guidance counselors' will be glad to arrange a time in which they can talk. By April Bovenkerk

Information Finder

Warriors get their information from the Media Centers - the library and computer lab. These two places are the main facilities in Calumet that the students go to to get their information. The library and computer lab are open every day for the students' advantage.

Miss Dori Downing is the person in charge of the computer lab. There are about twenty-five computers in the lab. Each computer is hooked up to a color and black and white printer. All of the computers are hooked up to the internet; this makes it really easy for students to get information they need.

Mrs. Dorothy Long is in charge of the library. The library is filled with books, computers, videos, and many more informational resources. Both of these facilities are very useful for our school. Almost every student in Calumet uses one of the two centers at least once a week.

It's a Girl Thing.

Everyone wears the same thing and we don't want to be like everyone else. It's a personality conflict.

We don't want to wear the same outfit a lot because we want to impress everyone.

Seniors

We have made history...

2000!!!!

I have enjoyed my 4 years at Calumet. The time has passed so fast and I'm going to miss my friends. Andrea Acevedo

I will miss all the great friends I've made. Mary Adams

05

Richard Adams

Live today for today, but always have dreams for tomorrow! Amanda Akers

Um, I just want to say bye to all my friends. I Love You!! Gerrriann Mantz

Everything happens for a reason. Christa Alexander

Joshua Glenbaugh

Good luck to the class of 2009 and let's keep in touch. Aaron Altmaw

Is there any advice you would like to give to your underclassmen?

When the Seniors are TP'ing the school, don't drive by and throw eggs. It's all fun and games until someone loses an eye.

Jerry Coppinger

My advice to the underclassmen is ignore the gossip. After graduation, how many of these people will you actually remember? Get your education and achieve your goals!

Stacy Cercone

All I have to tell them is to pass all their classes because if they don't they won't be able to accomplish what we Seniors have.

Oscar Quiroz

Just remember that you're only in b7b school once, so make the most of it. Work hard and never give up on yourself, it will all work out in the end.

Robyn Mendoza

A champion wins because he is willing to do what his opponent won't.
Mark Anderson

Tearing memories of De'Andry Modisette, Tony Stephanic, Keith Jackie, and Tanika Nona Anthony

To the class of 2000, I would just like to say good luck to everyone and be safe.
Josh Bagwell

Trust what you know, not what you hear.
Courtney Bailey

I would like to thank all the teachers and my friends that helped me out in high school.
Jeremy Baile

Margaret Barnard

Finally I finished school and earned a diploma.
David Beck

Who knows what the future holds and trust the one who holds the future?* Thanks c * 2000, Checi Beasley*

S

Chandra Brooks

Good luck to all my friends. keep in touch. I want I forget the great times we shared.
April Boenker

E

To all the ways acknowledge God and be will always direct you in the right paths.
Jonathan Brown

I

In all thou ways acknowledge him and be direct thou path. God Bless everyone.
Sharnell Bradley

*If you're six foot seven inches,
people will look up to you.*
Fred Brunn

Always Remember..... Push yourself or someone else will
Danielle Bark

I would like to thank all my friends and teachers who helped me through high school
Wesley Burnett

Congratulations Seniors and good luck to the underclassmen
Chris Ryers

I can't wait to see where we go and who we become!
Stacy Cervone

Good Luck to everyone at Calumet High in the future.
Lisa Cipich

Good luck in the future to the class of 2000!
Cartessa Clark

The only person that can bring you happiness is yourself!
Jade Cloud

*Never give up. God is always there.
I love you all!*
Marcelle Coader

Congratulations to all the Seniors and all my friends! Love Ya'
Billie Jo Cobb

You thought it would end with the '00 class but we proved you wrong; we will march farther into the future. Brianna Cooper

Seniors say good bye to Calumet and hello to your future. Good Luck!
Shawna Caff

R

'00'

Make the best of high school because it goes by way too fast.
Jerry Copinger

Get your education because when you get that, no one can take it from you.
Linda Crumedy

You only live once so be the best at what you do, and reach for your dreams. I'll miss you all.
Bridget Davis

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling which is in Christ Jesus.
Fran Davis

Appreciate what you have and enjoy high school. Believe or not it goes by really fast.
Jessica Davis

I wish my friends good luck for the future and never forget me.
Taryn Davis

Laughter and tears are responses to frustration. I prefer to laugh; there is less cleaning up to do afterward.
Brandy Delaney

The greatest memories are those you share with your closest friends.
Darcie Diebold

I will miss all of my friends, but most of all I will miss wrestling.
Brian Duncan

I'm up!
Aaron Echols

Can't wait to get outta here

"If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those of us who profess to favor freedom yet depreciate agitation are men who want the crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its many waters... This struggle may be a moral one or a physical one, but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without demand. It never has and never will. Show me the exact amount of wrong and injustices that are visited upon a person and I will show you the exact amount of words endured by these people. These wrongs and injustices may be fought with words or with blows or both. The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppose."

Aaron,
I love you and am so proud of this achievement of your graduation from Calumet High School. The road from here on out may be tough, but you can make it. I'm here for you and always will be.

Congratulations,
Jim!

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Mama &
Papa &
Rockie too!

Courtney,

As you travel the road of life with all of its bumps and curves, remember we'll always be here to love and support you. We are really proud of the young lady you've become. We tip our hats to all the graduates of 2000.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Brandi

Kathleen,

Through the years, you have given us numerous occasions to be proud parents. We are especially proud of you, as you reach your goal, of graduating high school with a Core-40 diploma! Kathleen, always set new goals for yourself and strive to do your best to achieve those goals. Your father and I wish you success and happiness in the new millennium. Poppa would be very, very proud of you!

Our love always,
Mom & Dad

Way to go Danielle.
We knew you could do it !!
Congratulations,

Love,
Dad
Mom
Vanessa and Marcus

Congratulations! You are an outstanding young man.
We are very proud of you and love you dearly. You are headed for a new horizon.
Remain focused, pray, stay close to God, remember your goals and always remember you can do all things through Christ who gives you strength. We wish you the VERY BEST.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Courtney and Andre

Congratulations Marcus
you have done a wonderful job. May God bless you in all your endeavors. We stand with you in all that you strive to do and be come and we love you very much .

Your Parents, Franklin and Paula Hare

Way to go Amy!!
You did it. We are so proud of you. We love you so much. Keep your head up and your goals high.
You will succeed!

Love Mom, Kimberly,
Kevin-Maki, and Molly

Aaron.

As a baby, you gave us joy. As a toddler, you gave us excitement. As a young man, you gave us pride. But you never gave us disappointment, son.

Love Mom, Dad, and Kim

David,
We wish we could find the words to tell you how proud we are of you.
Congratulations! We hope the future brings you all the best because you deserve it.
Love Dad, Mom,
Katelynn and Jarrette

Michelle,
It's been a rough mountain to climb but you've made it to the top!! We are so proud of you!!! KEEP ON SINGING!!!!

LOVE, Mom, Dad, Mark and Stephanie

Albert,

Through the years we have had the pleasure of watching you grow into a fine young man. The day you were born was a true blessing in our lives. There had not been a baby in the house for ten years and then came our big baby boy. The memory of your first laugh, your first words, the day you took your first step and your first day of kindergarten will always be precious memories. Now it's time to add yet another one of these precious memories to our book. It's here already! We remember when you got your first "class of 2000" t-shirt at your kindergarten graduation. When you actually walk across the stage in June, we want you to know that we are very proud of you! You've already crossed many stages of life but when you cross the CHS stage in June this will be the beginning of many successful stages to come. Albert, always remember SUCCESS AND THE ABILITY TO OVERCOME OBSTACLES IS IN YOUR BLOOD! Never forget it, take this with you wherever you go and utilize this ability 110% because: "YOU CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHO STRENGTHENS YOU!" You have grown into a young man we are proud to say is ours and we know as you continue to grow, well just become prouder as you successfully cross your stages of life. We're already looking forward to your college graduation in 2004! We love you, support you, and we thank God daily for blessing us with you! Always remember whatever stage of life you cross we'll be there helping you and cherishing you along the way! Love Mom, Dad, and Latrice

To our son Matthew,
We love you first of all. Your father and I would like to congratulate you for such a great job. My son I'm so proud of you. Now you are ready to go on to bigger things. Always remember what I have taught you. If the pieces fall apart later in your journey, first pick yourself up and start again. Look up to God for your needs. Love ya. Dad and Mom

To my son Ryland Sherman,

Who is anything but simple some lines from music by Simple Minds:
"...you can't stop the world for a boy or girl, sweet victims of proper circumstances. But you can pour back the love, sweeping down from above, giving hope and making more chances."

With love, Mom

To Skeeter

Look at this little WARRIOR. It is hard to believe you are now going out into the world. Good luck and keep your WARRIOR PRIDE.

Love Joann and Toni Vines

What's up Lt. Bro! Albert!

Or should I address you as Mr. Big Time Senior? I don't know if I ever told you how I used to come home and beg mama and daddy for a baby brother or sister because everyone in my class had one. The day mama told me she was pregnant I was "sitting on top of the world" Like Brandy and Mase! You would have thought I won the lottery! Thank God for blessing me with the opportunity to be your big sister. Yes, I know we've had our differences growing up, but I wouldn't have it any other way. I am proud to have you as a brother. I am really enjoying watching our relationship grow into a friendship. It's funny how time flies--yesterday I was changing your diaper and babysitting; now you're almost old enough to hang out at a club with me. I want you to know and always keep in your heart that I am very proud of you and I love you. You have grown into a fine young man! And you are kinda cute too!(It's obvious you take after your big sister) Don't let your head inflate bigger than it already is! As you embark upon a new stage of life stay focused and pray up! And take the love of God and family with you wherever you go.

As we always say- Success is in your blood! No weapon formed against you shall prosper! Never forget that! If you fail to plan, You plan to fail!!!

Congratulations! You will always have my prayers, love and support!

I love you!
Your sister
Latrice

To my daughter Erica,

Remember good in, good out garbage in, garbage out. What you think about, is what you become! If you always do what you've always done, you'll always get what you've always got. The you see is the you you'll be. If it is to be it is up to you. Love you forever, your Mom

My sweet baby girl,

Days of bumps, bruises and muddy faces are gone. While teachers taught you math and spelling I hope that I have taught you this.... the world is yours, you are free to live, laugh, and love. Be the ruler of your heart, Be the ruler of your mind! Defend your beliefs, stand up for yourself and back down to no one. Believe in yourself, Gypsy Girl. Make mistakes and learn from them! I love you. Like no other, MOM!

William,

We're so proud of you. You've grown up so fast. I still can't believe the time has come for you to graduate from high school. We wish you the very best in your future. You're a very bright young man, I thank God for you everyday. You're a wonderful son and you've made all of us so proud of you. (Grandpa would be so proud).

Lots of love,

Mom, Dad, Jason, Raleigh & Grandma

Jan.

Congratulations! Well, we finally made it! We knew you would. Now you are all grown up and there is that big, scary world out there waiting for you. As long as you keep your head on straight, I am sure you will do great! So go out there and make us proud, then you can take care of us. We wish you the best of luck.

Love,
Jeff and Jane

D.V.S.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on a job well done. I am so proud of you. I watched you grow from a beautiful baby boy into a mature young man. These past 18 years have been an experience for both you & me. With the help of the Lord we've survived the "Growing Pains". Always put "God" first & everything will fall into place. Believe in yourself!!!

Love ya! MA

Celia,

Congratulations! We knew you could do it. We are proud of you. Now the fun really begins.

Love

Mom, Dad Mike, Angel, and Jeffery

Jennifer,
We wish you the best in all you do. Good luck in the future.
Congratulations!!!
Love, Mom, Phillip, Rick and Jennifer.

To my whole gang,
I guess this is goodbye, but not forever b/c I will always remember my best friends. I feel this is like a new chapter in our lives and when we meet again I want to be able to share this experience with you. Thank you for always being there for me, Darcy. I have been through ups and downs with all of you, I will never forget our good times and bad. I love you! And to all the seniors thank you for a remarkable four years and I am glad we were able to share these memories.
Love Alicia

The staff takes a break from the rigorous routine of putting the book together to enjoy the sun. It takes a creative mind to put the yearbook together and sometimes that turns into stress, so a moment on the football bleachers was just what the class needed.

The 1999-2000 Chieftain was printed by the Newsfoto Division of Taylor P.O Box 1392, San Angelo, TX 76902. There were 275 books purchased between August and February ranging from $35-$42. The cover of this book is a silver foil for the celebration of the new Millennium. The cover design number is S64 and the decoration level is 4F. The end sheets are design number A23 with element dots of soft blue with a varnish color. The title page uses S64 for the miniature worlds.

The cover, endsheets, opening, title page, and all division pages were designed by Bridget Davis. The Activity section was designed by Courtney Bailey and Amy Palmer; the People section was designed by Caitrin Taylor, Jeremy Meulemans, and Robyn Mendoza; the Clubs section was designed by Mike Reiser and Celia Stooksbury; the Sports section was designed by Amber Owens, Mike Zimmer, and Shanda Scott; the Academics section was designed by April Bovenkirk and Danelle Niblett; and the Ads and Index section was designed by Alicia Neeley and Sharon Hurley.

The whole point of this year's yearbook was to get away from the usual standard form of a yearbook. Not only did we change the colors, but we also changed the club and people pages. Everyone decided that we were going to make this yearbook extra special for the New Millennium. Our class did not come up with one certain theme, because we wanted each student to get his/her own idea from what we made of this book. This class will be remembered as the first graduating class of the Millennium.

The book was created in the T term using Helltopez scanners. The software we used was UltraVision and Art Explosion. Fonts include Gourmand Cond (GY), Gourmand Cond Bold (GP), Gourmand Cond Bold ITI (QQ), and Gourmand Cond Italic (GM). All sections used the same font and font sizes for body copies and captions.

All candid photos were shot either by the staff, Brickie Studios, or Ms. Green on Kodak T-Max 400 and Ilford HP 400 speed black and white film. Team and Senior pictures were taken by Brickie Photo. Underclass pictures were produced by Interstate Studios, Inc.

The yearbook staff would like to give a big thanks to all the teachers and coaches for all their effort and patience, Ms. Green for all her patience and advice, our Taylor representative Greg Samples for his help and organization, and the administration for their support. We hope everyone enjoys this year's Chieftain.

—Bridget Coreen Davis
